Mekuri Primary School

Mekuri PS, was established in 1987, funded by Save the Children Fund is located at about 70 km from the Dzongkhag Headquarters. Nestled in Mekuri village under Dungmaed Gewog, the school occupies 6.036 acres of land. Initially the school was a community school headed by Mr. Sonam Norbu with classes from PP to IV. In 2000, it was upgraded to accommodate classes up to VI.

The name "Mekuri" has an interesting origin. It is derived from the Assamese word "Mekuri," meaning cat. Legend has it that while Assamese travelers were passing through this area, a wild black cat appeared suddenly, frightening them. Consequently, the place came to be known as Mekuri, the original name of the area where the school stands today is Norbuthang, "The Land of Precious Jewels."
